

STUDENT PICTURES GUIDELINES

- (1) Every year, pictures may be taken by a professional company or individual at the school with the permission of the Superintendent's Department. These pictures may be taken in the fall, at graduation or at other times throughout the year.
- (2) Inclusion in group pictures is an individual's decision.
- (3) All students must have an individual picture taken for school record purposes.
- (4) Purchase of pictures is voluntary with the price determined by the company selling the pictures.
- (5) A family plan will be in effect for all schools in the division for regular fall pictures. The terms of the family plan will be communicated through the school. The plan is not applicable to specialty pictures taken throughout the year (i.e. graduation, roof-top).
- (6) An employee of the River East Transcona School Division may not provide school picture services so as to advance their own commercial, personal, or financial interests.
